White & Rosé Wines:

#1 - Casteller Cava Rosé, NV, Penedes, Spain

Jeanine's favorite value sparkling wine! Made from the Trepas grape, this bubbly is loaded with fresh strawberry and floral notes. 12 months aging on the lees gives wonderful texture to the bubbles. Wildly versatile with regard to food pairing. But fried chicken is one of our faves! $15

#2 - Fattoria San Lorenzo Trebbiano, 2022, Abruzzo, Italy

A lovely fresh clean white that has a loads of pear, peach pit, and apricot flavors. There's some nice spice and a hint of beeswax on the finish. Perfect with white pizza, seafood pasta and chicken and pesto. $14

#3 - Old Soul Sauvignon Blanc, 2023, Lodi, California

This Sauvignon from very warm Lodi has lots of melon, orange citrus and some tropical fruit notes (like guava, maybe?). Some of the fruit is harvested early to give the wine balance and brightness. There's a bit of French oak aging to add some spice and a hint of toast. Lovely paired with goat cheese salad, fresh seafood or spring veggies. $15

#4 - Goats do Roam White, 2022, Western Cape, South Africa

A fun play on the "Cotes du Rhone", this blend of Viognier, Grenache Blanc, Marsanne & Roussanne is a dead ringer for the French white. This fresh white is brimming with honeysuckle, pineapple, melon and mango flavors. The finish is crisp and bright and clean. Pairs well with rotisserie chicken (Hey Costco!), Asparagus with Hollandaise or white fish. $14

#5 - Secret Cellars Chardonnay, 2021, Central Coast, California

I love this Chardonnay for its balance. It is sourced from cool Central Coast vineyards so there's lovely red apple, roast pear and lemon curd fruit. It sees some French oak aging which gives some baking spices and a bit of toastiness. And partial malolactic fermentation gives us some notes of butter and baked apple pie. The whole combination comes together beautifully. We love this wine with meatier fish, mac-n-cheese & pork tenderloin. $14

#6 - 508 Provence Rosé, 2023, Provence, France

The folks at Chateau Paradis in Provence make this wine and it's a fantastic value. Made from Syrah, Cinsault & Grenache, it has aromas of red berries, citrus, watermelon and peach, followed by a medium-bodied, round and supple texture and freshness on the finish. $15

Red Wines:

#7 - Promesses Pinot Noir, 2022, Vin de France

Sourced from vineyards in the south of France and some from cooler sites farther north gives a wine with lovely balance. The light ruby color is followed by aromas of raspberry and strawberry on the nose. The palate has elegant notes of raspberry tea, cinnamon and spice. Perfect with roast turkey, salmon or mushroom anything. $13

#8 - Maison Trelat Beaujolais, Burgundy, France

Beaujolais has springtime written all over it. There are lots of perfumed floral aromas along with juicy black cherry and blueberry flavors. The finish is round with no hard edges. Fantastic with all of your picnic favorites; cheese and charcuterie, ham & cheese sandwiches, and grilled vegetables. $14

#9 - Mandriola Red, Lisboa, Portugal

Another amazing value from Portugal. Don't snooze on this one! A blend of Syrah, Alicante Bouchet and Touriga Nacional, this wine is rich and complex with dark plum and blackberry notes, a hint of rustic leather and cigar box with some spice and ripe tannin on the finish. Great with tacos, meatloaf, or burgers. $11

#10 - Hecht & Bannier Red Blend, Languedoc, France

This wine is a classic Rhone blend of Syrah, Grenache & Carignane. It has a deep ruby color followed by classic notes of peppery herbs and juicy berry fruits. Medium-bodied, concentrated, and deliciously quaffable, it's a perfect mid-week drinker. Pair it with grilled sausages, pot roast or duck or game. $14

#11 - Four Vines Petite Sirah, 2021, California

There's nothing petite about petite sirah. This monster is like Rambo in a glass. Deep, inky purple color with aromas of fig, roasted hazelnuts and boysenberry. It is big and lush and full bodied with oodles of fruit, spice and ripe tannin. Begs for BBQ. $13

#12 - Barossa Valley Estate Cabernet Sauvignon, 2021, Barossa, Australia

Barossa Cabernet is always a commanding style of wine but also highly expressive and wonderfully complex. There are wonderful flavors of dark plum, black currant, with nice spice and ripe tannin on the finish. $12
