

Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 348

Scholarship Program 2026

PURPOSE OF THE FUND:

A scholarship program for members of the Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 348.

Laborers' Local 348 has funded this scholarship program. Established in 2013, Scholarships will be awarded annually to assist eligible students in furthering their education.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Those eligible are individuals who are currently members of Laborers' Local 348 that have maintained membership in any Local of the Laborers' International Union of North America for the preceding two (2) years and their defined dependents. To be considered, a student must be in good standing in the final year of high school or attending a trade program, college, or university on a full-time basis.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

The exact nature and content of the scholarship program will be determined on an annual basis by the Laborers' Local 348 Executive Board. Whereas these scholarships are for the members of Laborers' Local 348 or their dependents, announcements will be made on the Laborers' Local 348 website, www.local348.com, as well as at the Laborers' Local 348 monthly union meeting. The announcements will explain the present annual program available, and any specifics involved in applying.

There shall be no discrimination based on race, color, creed, national origin, age, or gender in the selection process or the administration of the scholarship program.

The following general scholarship criteria will be considered in making the selections:

- Academic attainments (test scores, grade point average, class ranking)
- Character
- Need
- Anticipated field of study
- Extra-curricular accomplishments
- Other (as may seem applicable to the scholarship program in question)

Definition of a defined dependent: spouse, child(ren), grandchild(ren), stepchild(ren), step grandchild(ren) and legal dependent
