THE LETTER TO THE PHILIPPIANS

Commit this verse to memory: Philippians 1:27a "Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ."

Discussion Questions:

Do you have dreams? I know I do. When I was a kid I used to dream of saving a life on a plane. Don't ask me why, but it's true. The closest I've come to that is handing out orange juice to a diabetic on a plane. What can I say? You take what you get.

When it comes to dreams, does it surprise you that God has dreams for you? Like the loving Father that He is, God lovingly longs for you to know certain things and live a certain way. He has a future filled with hope for you. Do you believe that?

1. We often get so preoccupied with our dreams that we miss the fact that God has dreams for us. Are you in tune with His dreams for you? Are there any dreams that you need to yield to Him?
2. Eventually God gets us to a place where our dreams hit a wall. How you handle that place will determine what happens to you moving forward. What are two possible reactions when your dreams hit a wall?
3. Is what you want to do for God more important to you than God?
4. What does it mean to live a life worthy of the gospel of Christ?
5. What is the obstacle or conflict that you are facing today? What promises and stories can encourage you to face conflict without fear, and to bear fruit through conflict?
6. Did this lesson change your perspective on God's dreams for you? How?
