APÉRITIFS

Europe's answer to the cocktail, 'l'apéro' is traditionally a fortified wine or anisette, and is thought to wake up the palate at the start of a meal, making everything consumed afterward taste even better..!

GREETINGS FROM

JURA

Located to the east of Burgundy and adjacent to Switzerland, this cool climate wine region produces wines akin to, and distinct from its more famous neighbor to the west. If Burgundy is mainstream, Jura is offbeat, with grape varieties such as Savagnin and Trousseau, and wine styles such as vin jaune offering an original journey.

Even Chardonnay is a different animal here. Because of the cold temperatures, the Chardonnay wines made in Jura are closer in style to those of Chablis than Burgundy. To combat high acidity, they're often aged for long periods in oak barrels. These are wines worth exploring!

PRODUCER HIGHLIGHT

Big Table Farm

One of the standout wineries in the Willamette Valley, Big Table Farm is the collaborative effort of Clare Carver and Brian Marcy. Their journey began a decade ago when they decided to move to Oregon from Napa, where Brian had been making wine for ten years, honing his winemaking talents at Marcassan, Turley and Neyers. They bought property in the Willamette Valley and made their first 150 cases back in 2006. Clare's award-winning wine labels are the perfect distinguishing look for this already storied producer. Today, a little more than a decade later, they are crafting some of the most compelling wines in all of Oregon.
