Thanksgiving in San Diego

Let the holidays cater to you this year and choose from this list of things to do for Thanksgiving in San Diego. Show the whole family a good time by trying something different this time around. Don't worry about your uncle stealing all the gravy at the dinner table—attend one of these buffets for the holiday and indulge in unlimited traditional Thanksgiving fixings. Tired of going to the movies thinking that's the only thing open. After all the eating you are fighting to stay awake during the previews. Why not let the holidays be a reason to get out of the house and enjoy some family activities together. Burn off that turkey-coma by hitting the ice at Hotel Del's ice skating rink instead! Get off the couch and go for a run at the Del Mar family fun run. Check out our mini guide to Thanksgiving in San Diego and see how you can make the holiday extra special this year.

Green Dragon Tavern & Museum

www.greendragontavernca.com (<http://www.greendragontavernca.com>)

This is a holiday for the books. Celebrate Thanksgiving amongst the Pilgrims and Native Americans who founded this tradition at Green Dragon Tavern. Feast on a buffet of roast turkey, spiral ham with apple cider glaze and New England Cod with Lemon beurre blanc. Don't forget all the fixings! Their sides include mixed greens, shrimp cocktail, soup, rosemary mashed potatoes and white truffle and yucca creamed corn to name a few. Don't forget to save room for dessert with their assortment of house made pies and chocolate fountain! Once you've put as much food as you can humanly take into your body, burn it off by wandering the museum. The museum focuses on the contributions of our founding fathers during colonial-American history. Take a peek at the innovations of those who came before us.

Rancho Bernardo Inn

www.ranchobernardoinn.com (<http://www.ranchobernardoinn.com/>)

Tucked away on a lush 18-hole golf course, Rancho Bernardo Inn is a tranquil oasis offering multiple options for Thanksgiving this year. For the true foodies, the on-property restaurant, AVANT is offering an elevated 3-course Thanksgiving menu from 2 – 7 p.m. With sophisticated offerings by Chef Tomas Baistrocchi, AVANT is the perfect choice for food-lovers who want a break from the kitchen. For fun with the whole family, the Aragon Ballroom will serve Thanksgiving classics with a special holiday buffet from 11 a.m. – 3 p.m. The entire family will be entertained, as the event is featuring live music on the terrace and a petting zoo & pony rides on the lawn. For Thanksgiving sweets to-go, patrons can delight in delicious mini-pies by Chef Margaret Nolan, the well-known pastry expert.

Rancho Valencia Resort & Spa

www.ranchovalencia.com (<http://www.ranchovalencia.com>)

Located in the upscale San Diego community of Rancho Santa Fe, Rancho Valencia Resort & Spa, which just reopened last October following a $30 million renovation, will host an exquisite Thanksgiving buffet presented by Executive Chef Jarrod Moiles on Thursday, November 27. Featuring various stations including Charcuterie and Cheeses, Salads, Cold Seafood, House Made Pastas, a Carving Station and Desserts, guests will get the chance to indulge in Veladora's Coastal Ranch cuisine that blends the area's locally grown fruits and vegetables with unique combinations of flavors. Topped with live music and a most decadent dessert spread including the resort's classic Pumpkin and Pecan pies, it's just the way to celebrate the holiday. Reservations are required.
