

2018 Updated Arrow Striping Instructions

How to Stripe Your Arrow of Honor

Arrow Striping with adhesive stripes is a good looking, quick and easy way to put career bands on your Honor Arrow—available at www.AcornAwards.com

Steps for striping your Arrow of Honor

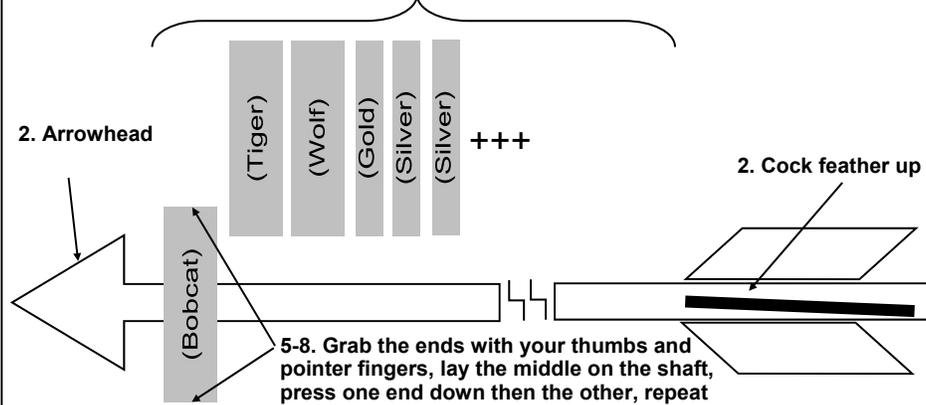

1. Fill in the ‘#’ column in the chart below with the number you have of each Rank or Award. For example, “4” if you were a Tiger and “1” if you were a Bobcat. Only Silver Arrow Points and Webelos Activity Pins can be more than “1”.

Rank	Ranks & Awards	# of stripes	Color
Bobcat	xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx		Black
Tiger	xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx		Orange
Wolf	Wolf Badge		Red
	Gold Arrow Point		Gold
	Silver Arrow Points		Silver
Bear	Bear Badge		Green
	Gold Arrow Point		Gold
	Silver Arrow Points		Silver
Webelos	Webelos Badge		Blue
	Activity Pin(s)		White
	World Conservation		Purple
	Religious Award		Tan
	Arrow of Light		Yellow

2. Put the arrowhead flat on the table with the cock feather up.
3. Lay out your stripes according to your numbers and colors in the chart above — Where you start and spacing is up to you!
4. Peel the backing off your first stripe.
5. Grab the ends of the stripe with your thumbs and pointer fingers.
6. Lay the middle of the stripe across the arrow shaft.
7. Press down one end of the stripe then the other.
8. Repeat with the next stripe until they are all applied.

2018 update: Using the new awards system? For Bear: After the Green Stripe, use a one white stripe for each two Adventures above the required 7 Adventures (6 possible). For Webelos and Arrow of Light: After the Blue Stripe, use one white stripe for each Adventure above the required 14 total Webelos and Arrow of Light Adventures (13 possible stripes).*

1&3. Using your chart above, lay out your stripes by your arrow (spacing is up to you)
