The Incredible Impact of Strong Tower Radio...

The Testimony of Mary Yates: The Rest of the Story

One Sabbath, Mark asked me to go to the Chippewa Nature Center for a walk. I agreed to go, and we ran into the Kahlil and Bolt families from the Midland SDA Church while there. I think we talked for over an hour until they had to leave for an event at the church. I said, “Mark is everyone from the church that nice?” Of course, he said, “That’s what I’ve been telling you.”

While Mark was in Sabbath school and church each week, I was actually up and reading my Bible, and I roughly knew when Mark was going to be home so I’d make sure that I had everything put away before he did. One Sabbath, I was reading the Bible and Mark came home early because there was no fellowship meal. He saw that I was reading the Bible, so I told him that I had been reading selected passages that he talked about when he came home from Sabbath School and Church. The jig was up!

One week Mark came home and said, Pastor Cory would like to come over and talk and if I was okay with that. I said, “Yes! That’s fine.” Pastor Cory came over to the house and I had a list of questions for him. He answered all my questions to my satisfaction. Mark also scheduled his baptism with Pastor Cory that evening and we soon had another conversation where I had more questions about his baptism. Those were also answered satisfactorily, Mark asked if I would be there on his baptismal day and I said, “Absolutely!” After Mark’s baptism, I went to church every Sabbath, although I didn’t go to Bible Study or fellowship dinner. What I didn’t know was that Pastor Cory and Mark had spoken about me and Mark told him not to push me or I would not come back.

A few weeks later, after Sabbath services, I was shaking Pastor Cory’s hand when he said, “I’d like to meet with you, if you are okay with that.” I told Mark after church and he said, you know Pastor is going to ask if you want to join the church and be baptized. I said, “Yes, I know” and Mark said, “Well do you have an answer?” I told him, “Yes! I do.”

Pastor Cory came over and we discussed my coming to church and being baptized. I said October 10th would be perfect for me if that works for you. His jaw dropped and he told us that he prayed that I would get baptized before the end of 2015 and that he always wanted to baptize someone on his baptism date, and I just picked that date! So, I was baptized on October 10, 2015.

Mark and I discussed bringing our grand-daughter Alyssa to Sabbath School. We were a little worried about what she would do or think. She spent several weekends with us and we have begun to take her to Sabbath School, Church and Fellowship Dinner. She absolutely loves going!

If it wasn’t for Strong Tower Radio, I guarantee that we would not be going to church, studying the Bible or getting our grand-daughter involved. Strong Tower Radio has been a huge blessing to our family!
