

General Bio/Introduction

Mercedes L. Miller

Mercedes L. Miller is an internationally recognized speaker, author and consultant whose programs are focused on Mindset Management: Proven Principles, Practical Application, Profound Results. The Mindset Management systems and Create the Life You Desire programs are used by executives and organizations to increase productivity, drive profits and experience peace in the process.

Mercedes continues to broaden her expertise with advanced education through the #1 neuroscience program in England. Her work as a neuroscientist shall continue to drive cognitive patterns to help people around the world manifest what they desire. Mercedes's Dealing with Foe-workers and Faux-workers: Keys to Accountability focused on employee engagement and accountability is lauded by C-Level Executives. Her words of insight and inspiration have been heard on nationally syndicated radio programs weekly. Mercedes's Executive Consulting, Keynote Speeches or Individualized Training can usher you to rapid results personally and professionally.

For more than 25 years Mercedes L. Miller (pronounced MER-sa-dus) has served as a principal consultant in Mercedes-Empowers, Inc. providing proven strategies in leadership development, resource procurement, strategic planning and program design. Clients call her the Master Manifestor. Mercedes uses her training from Harvard University in Leadership and Economic Development coupled with keen insight to guide Executives and entities to greater productivity and higher profits. Her efforts have yielded millions of dollars in monetary and in-kind resources for those she serves. She has the powerful ability to aide her clients in articulating their desires and then paving the way for the manifestation.

Having trained, facilitated and keynoted in 49 of the 50 United States and on three continents, Mercedes has an intrinsic ability to leave an indelible impression on the hearts and minds of readers and listeners when she speaks and writes. Over the years, her speaking and consulting clients include governmental entities like Federal Bureau of Prisons, Environmental Protection Agency and Homeland Security; medical facilities and organizations including the American Association of Psychiatric Professionals, Novant Health, University of Michigan Medical Facility, Wake Forest Baptist Medical Facility as well as for-profit businesses, non-profit organizations and more than a dozen colleges and universities including Carolina University, Virginia Tech, Miami University and University of North Carolina School of the Arts.

Mercedes is the author of Pathways to Peace: Meditations for a Tranquil Life – a brilliant book on how to use thoughts and words to obtain what you desire and maintain balance in the process. You may have seen her column on Mindset Management in your local newspaper as her writings to illuminate the power of the mind have been published throughout the United States and Europe. Ms. Miller's program design for training, outreach initiatives and project implementation work have allowed her entrance into the United Nations and garnered the opportunity to work with more than 61 jurisdictions within and outside of the United States.

Throughout the years she has made an acute impact on national and local organizations. Among her community work, Mercedes served on the Wake Forest University Divinity School Board of Visitors. The work she does within the community has caused her to win numerous leadership and community services awards from such organizations as the YWCA and National Women of Achievement. Mercedes serves as a mentor to small businesses through the Small Business Center in her city. She has been lauded for her volunteer work in the prison system and with women transitioning back into society. Because of her dedication to education and humankind, she was bestowed a Doctor of Humane Letters from Springfield College and Benedictine University.

Indeed, her work with local, national and international entities makes a difference in the lives of individuals and society as a whole. She is a proud member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
