

Accountability Partnership Program

What is it?

The Accountability Partnership Program will enable you to partner with like-minded Coach to move forward on your goals and dreams, building confidence with action and accountability.

Through weekly interactive calls you will become aware of your fears and overcome them with courage.

When is it?

Partnership Calls – 8 week program from the time you start

What can you expect?

One 60-minute intro call with your AP Coach to set up meeting dates, times and review your WHY sheet.

Seven weekly 30-minute accountability phone calls with your AP Coach.

What is expected of you?

To understand this is an 8-week commitment, to play full out.

To understand the purpose and intent of this program.

To respect the time commitment (30 minutes each week) to your AP Coach by being prepared and on time.

To set specific, measurable weekly goals that move you in the direction you want to go.

To encourage and gently pressure other participants to go farther than they could on their own.

To show zero judgment towards your chosen goals.

To participate fully in as many of the weekly calls and to miss no more than two of your Partnership calls.

Most importantly for you to move the needle in a specific area of your life towards the life you were purposed and designed to create.

WHY SHEET

What are my top 3 priorities in my life?

Why am I in the Accountability Partnership program?

What do I see as my top 3 priorities in this program over the next 60 days?

What are the top 3 goals that will enable me to move forward on these priorities?

How will I feel when I attain these goals?

Why are these goals and these feelings important to me?

If you are stuck, or not following through on your accountability, how should your Partners talk to you or what should they say to help you focus on your why?
