Dwayne Robinson, Officiating

- His Life Story -

Wayne James Robinson born November 10, 1933. He started working at Chrysler Warren Stamping plant at the age of 18 and retired the summer of 1994. Wayne used to love to go fishing and walking at Belle Isle. Wayne loved to be at home. He would cook and watch TV for hours in his kitchen. Wayne leaves to cherish his memory two sons: Dwayne and Blaine Robinson; one daughter: Millette Robinson: nine grandchildren: Anise, Dwayne, Dajuan, Raymon, Ashley, Javon, Lance, Fallon, and Carol; and fourteen great grandchildren. He also leaves an aunt, Jamie Lou and a cousin, Jeffery.

Father: life is a race, it involves preparation, struggle, and reward. Life is a journey this speaks of observations, experience and destination. Life is uncertain this is true, as to its content as well as its length. Life is brief it is like vapor, the flower, the grass. Life is eternal death is does not end all. We are transformed to another greater expression of his will, love and likeness. Life is a story in three volumes: 1 The last 2 The present 3 The yet to be. The first is finished and laid away the second we're reading day to day, the third and the last volume is lock from sight. God keeps the keep.

Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor, the appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. - James 4:14

I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. - St. John 14:6
