To Whom It May Concern:

We just finished remodeling our house in Woodside having Rolando Flores (Custom Homes Builders) as our contractor.

Going through the process of remodeling for several months, we are now aware of how many things can go wrong...It is thanks to Rolando that nothing went wrong in the process and we are confident that we ended up with not only beautiful home but also a secure, solid construction and minimal maintenance building of which we will enjoy for years.

Rolando is a thorough builder who will not compromise on quality, will not take any shortcuts and will make sure all materials used are the best in the market. He is genuinely interested in the consumer's satisfaction and will do whatever he can to deliver the home his clients dream of.

We recommend Custom Homes Builders with all of our hearts. We feel that Roland is an honest man, a knowledgeable builder and that he is trustworthy. The kind of contractor that is hard to find these days. In fact, if we ever build again, we will most definitely hire him again.
