

This website is maintained solely for the purpose of disseminating general information related to the Greater St. Louis Laborers' Pension and Welfare Funds for the benefit of participants, beneficiaries, and signatory employers. More specific information related to the Funds can be found in the Plan Documents and Trust Agreements for the Funds. In the event of a conflict between information contained on this website and the Plan Documents, the latter will govern. Questions related to eligibility for benefits or claims for benefits can only be addressed by contacting the Benefit Fund Office. Unless otherwise indicated, the materials published on this website, including opinions expressed therein, are the responsibility of the individual author and not the Pension and Welfare Funds. This website contains as a convenience to its users links to other websites that are not under the control of the Pension and Welfare Funds; the Pension and Welfare Funds are not responsible for the content of the linked websites. The Pension and Welfare Funds do not endorse or warrant the accuracy of information contained on the linked websites. The Pension and Welfare Funds are not liable for any expense or damage incurred as a consequence of the use of this website, including expense or damages arising from communication failure, inaccurate information, or computer malfunction.