

Da Vinci's

OF BOCA

La Nostra Storia / Our Story

Our hometown Mesoraca is situated between the Verger and Reazio rivers in the Calabria region of southern Italy known as the "toe" of the Italian boot. Mesoraca is divided into two parts, a flat plain and a rugged mountainous district. Its ancient origins date to 600 BCE and through the ages it has welcomed the Greeks, the Romans and the Jewish people.

Our grandfather, Giuseppe Carvelli, was born in Mesoraca in 1909 and raised his five children in the village. Family and friends gathered every evening around the dinner table featuring our distinctive Calabrian cuisine. Photographs throughout our restaurant reveal the culture and traditions of our family during the past three generations. Today the 5,000 residents of Mesoraca including Grandfather's descendants still gather every evening with tables filled with the local meats, oils, citrus and wines of this region now coveted around the world.

Beginning over a decade ago Giuseppe's grandsons immigrated to south Florida, each one paving the road for the next. We have tried to bring a sense of family and hospitality to our restaurants that we were influenced with as children. Every meal is a memorable experience in our home and we try to recreate that experience for our guests and new friends at Da Vinci's. On behalf of the Carvelli family, "Welcome to our table!" Benvenuti!
