

CENTURION GROUP DC (Centurion)

Promoting A Culture Of Compliance™

OUR MISSION

Provide adaptive compliance and control risk management solutions that enable clients to focus on business objectives while addressing the challenging climate of global political and government relations compliance. Simply put: we promote a culture of compliance in your business while saving you time and money.

OUR SERVICES

In addition to core service functions, Centurion offers a variety of compliance and control risk management solutions including, but not limited to: outsourced government relations compliance management, global policy development and management, operational risk gap analysis, and program management.

Lobbying Disclosures

Busy professionals don't have time to worry about completing paperwork required by lobbying and ethics commissions: we do all the work for you.

Project Management

From internal auditing to the build out of Sharepoint websites, the Client Team at Centurion can streamline the process, and save you valuable time and money.

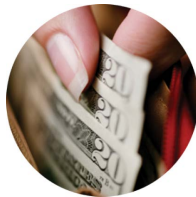

Political Contributions

We monitor state and federal campaign finance laws that limit the type of political contributions, contribution dollar limits, and prohibitions for registered lobbyists.

Gifts, Meals, & Entertainment

Are you planning an event and inviting government employees? Let Centurion make sure your business is in compliance with the laws governing gifts and entertainment given.

Soliciting & Fundraising Guidelines

Our strategic partners specialize in helping clients with political action committee (PAC) communications programs designed to help organizations meet continually evolving market dynamics.

Pay-to-Play & Procurement Lobbying

We make sure your government contracts don't violate federal and state laws, which ensure politicians and government employees aren't accepting bribes in exchange for business.

ABOUT US

Centurion Group DC, LLC (Centurion) was founded in 2011 to offer clients an outsource option for government relations regulatory compliance management. With more than 20 years experience in managing government relations political compliance and control programs, our firm staff and business partners have a deep understanding of how corporations function internally. Centurion provides guidance on regulatory matters at the federal, state, and local level, and guidance on growing, international challenges.
