

Kevin J. Goodman, who has more than 30 years of experience in the technology and construction industries, leads business development, sales and marketing at BlueBridge Networks in Cleveland. BlueBridge is a data center, cloud computing and cyber security services firm.

Mr. Goodman plays an active role in assisting companies and organizations in the SMB and enterprise market to comply with current legislation and best practices around data center, cloud computing and business continuity and cyber security services including HIPAA. Mr. Goodman actively encourages corporate involvement in the disaster recovery, workforce development, business continuity and security areas. He is a sought out local and national speaker on various topics and author of numerous articles.

He attended the JD/MPA program at John Marshall Law School and College of Maxine Levin Goodman College of Urban Studies at Cleveland State. Additionally, He holds a BA from Cleveland State in Political Science with a specialization in Political Communication.

Goodman is a member of the boards of Regional Information Technology Engagement (RITE), Cleveland/Cuyahoga County Workforce Investment Board and recent past member of the United Way of Greater Cleveland campaign committee and Northern Ohio Leukemia & Lymphoma Society.

He is the recipient of numerous honors, including 2017 Smart Business Best of Tech, 2017 SME of Cleveland DMSA Award winner, 2015 Inside Business NEO Success Award; CRN Magazine Managed Service Provider 500 list (2014, 2015, 2016, 2017); CRN Next-Gen 250; CRN 2016 Tech Elite Solutions Provider; 2016 Ohio Cancer Research Star Award; 2016 CRN Top Midmarket IT Vendor Executive; Inside Business NEO Success Award (2012, 2015); 2013-2015 Cool Tech 25 Cleveland Inside Business magazine, among others.

He also was named to the Smart Business-Corporate College Smart 50 Class of 2014 and 2015.