To Whom It May Concern,

It is my sincere pleasure to recommend the services of Sterling Domestic Agency, and JaNiece Rush. Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is [REDACTED] and I am the Director of Public Relations and Strategic Planning for an organization called the "Global Youth Vision". Previously, I worked for an Academy Award Winning actress for a period of six years as a personal assistant and was responsible for staffing three estates in New York City, Long Island and California. The positions I hired for consisted of estate managers, housemen, security, nannies and housekeepers. As I'm sure you know, these are extremely vital positions.

JaNiece Rush and Sterling Domestic Agency has truly earned a very positive endorsement. The scope of JaNiece's outreach spans politicians, celebrities, authors, spiritual leaders, philanthropists, and humanitarians. They have been plucked from a diversity of different professions, walks of life, and backgrounds. If you have not yet had the good fortune to know JaNiece well, she is a magician and her highly-respected and strongly credible reputation allows her to gloriously perform her magic by bringing these people together with the staff they so vitally need to produce nothing short of miracles. I had the pleasure of working directly with JaNiece and experiencing a person who at all times was professional, detailed, and most importantly integres. In my line of work confidentiality and discretion is most valued.

In the six years I personally worked with JaNiece I found her to be consistent with the quality of applicants. She listens deeply and was always considerate of my schedule and went to great extremes to accommodate me in the interviewing process. I worked with many agencies before I found "Sterling" and was greatly disappointed. I found that the process with the other agencies was like a "cattle call", a lot time was wasted interviewing applicants that didn't have the qualifications I requested. I was vice president of the Association of Celebrity Personal Assistants at that time, and was able to ask my peers for a referral to an agency that is the "best of the best". Sterling Domestic was highly recommended by a quite a few of my most valued colleagues. Professionally speaking, it is people, not money, who bring us opportunities.

I felt compelled to write this letter in appreciation of JaNiece Rush and Sterling Domestic Agency for their contribution she has made in my life. We can all use another person in our lives who can be trusted, who is positive and uplifting, someone you can always depend upon. We knew that JaNiece and her staff would always go well beyond the call of duty to see that our needs were met. Thank you JaNiece.

If you would like to speak to me personally to discuss the discrete and professional services Sterling, of my direct phone number is [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

Client's name withheld for
