ALOHA,

Coconut's Fish Cafe first opened on Maui in 2009 to serve delicious, high-quality food. But Coconut's is about more than great food; we dedicated ourselves to providing service with Aloha. We continue to share our love and passion with customers and Ohana alike, featuring our family recipes and making all of our dressings from scratch. And what's more, we offer everyone healthy options that never sacrifice flavor.

We make our coleslaw with coconut milk and serve only brown rice. We offer many gluten-free and low-fat options. Even our Fish & Chips aren't caked in a greasy batter — instead they are lightly breaded to highlight our fish.

It's all about the fish!

What an amazing (and crazy) journey this has been, to go from a wild idea during an annual trip to Maui to becoming an owner/operator of Coconut's Fish Cafe here on the mainland. We are so excited to bring some Aloha Spirit to the Bay Area and the community of Cupertino. Our promise to you, our guests, is to make you feel a part of our Ohana (family) and give you a small piece of our beloved Island of Maui.

Mahalo,
Chad & Lisa Webb

Our Ohana

As we become part of the Cupertino community, we'd like to introduce the members of our family: Our daughter, Tempest, who leads our Social Media (@CoconutsSBay), her husband, Dane, customer service guru at a local software startup and our son, Byron, a cadet in the Air Force Academy. You'll often see us serving our guests, so please say Aloha!

We want to thank the Phillips/Oney family for entrusting us with expanding the Coconut's Fish Cafe brand in the Bay Area.

This is Coconut

Coconut was adopted from the Maui Humane Society in 2001 as a Father's Day gift for our Founder Mike Phillips from his daughter Frances. He enjoys lounging in the sun and is the namesake of Coconut's Fish Cafe.
