

Fish Processing Technician

HOURS: Full Time

LOCATION: Icy Waters Ltd., Whitehorse, Yukon, Canada

ENTRY WAGE: $16 per hour

Icy Waters Ltd. is an aquaculture company dedicated to the development, growth, processing, and sale of premium Arctic Charr and “Yukon Gold” Arctic Charr ova. The 25 + year old Canadian company believes that all employees be directly involved in production from “egg to plate”.

We are seeking applicants for full time permanent employment for a Fish Processing Plant Technician. Work will be primarily in the Fish Processing Plant with other farm duties as required.

Highlighted Responsibilities:

- Harvesting fish for daily processing
- Operating fish processing machinery
- Careful hand cutting
- Quality Control inspections to ensure all company standards are achieved
- Sorting, grading and packaging fish to fill customer orders
- Cleaning of the Plant and of all areas associated with processed product
- Participate in after hours alarm rotation
- Comply with all regulatory, safety and company procedures
- Tank Farm and Hatchery chores of feeding, monitoring, and handling fish as required

The qualities and skills preferred include:

- Experience in fish processing, food handling, quality control or aquaculture is an asset
- Work effectively in a fast-paced environment, sometimes under time constraints
- Physically fit to stand, lift, carry, net; to do repetitive work in cold, wet environment, indoors/outdoors
- Aptitude to operate processing equipment
- Ability to communicate in English
- Self-starter, able to work independently, effective communication, good interpersonal skills
- Attention to detail, accurate record keeping
- Computer experience with Excel, Word, and email
- Valid Driver’s license or ability to obtain a Valid Driver’s license
- Proof of ability to work in Canada

Candidate must be able to provide a satisfactory security and criminal record check for past five years within the first two weeks of hire.

SEND RESUME TO: admin@icywaters.com - Re: Fish Processing Plant Technician 2019