MY JOURNEY HOME TO THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Over the next several weeks, we will be sharing stories of our newest Church members and their journeys home to the Catholic Church. They also share insights into their experiences of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adult classes.

First I would like to thank Monsignor John Dietzenbach, who had compassion on us, the former “Life in Jesus” members and oblates. He knew how we love the Eucharist and worked out a plan that would allow us to come into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church in September 2009.

My husband and I are quite ministered to by Fr. Jason. The choir and music releases the love of God and truth, renewing baptismal vows from my youth.

Faith is not found wanting; it is found here in St. Peter’s. I first saw love and truth as a child. Jesus was in the tabernacle when I was witnessed to by my friends in their Catholic Church.

Joining my brothers and sisters at St. Peter’s has allowed the Lord to continue allowing me to grow. I feel like dropping to my knees and praying inside the sanctuary, thanks to Deacon Mike Misulia’s insights into making this Church a reality.

May God Bless All,
Carole Barber
