(Social reception to follow in Sappington Hall)

What makes us truly human is the fact that we are gifted with the inclination to worship our Creator. When man conforms to Christ, Whose whole existence is to love and worship the Father, then he is fully human. It is when we fail to conform to the ideal man, Jesus our Christ, that we become less than human.

Please join Fr. Terry Cramer in a three day exploration of the "worshiping man." We will explore the place of worship in our lives and how the Church's sacraments conform us to Christ, the perfect man.
