RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

October 2, 2011

THE NEW TRANSLATION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

The Creed ("I believe ...")

New: "We believe" will now be "I believe." The change from the plural, "we", to the singular, "I", now unites us with the entire Church. After Vatican II, English was the only language that translated the words to "We believe." "I believe" is an exact translation of the Latin, Credo. The use of "I believe" makes the faith statements that we profess in the Creed more personal. As individuals, we cannot speak for the collective beliefs of others present, we can only make a personal act of faith, i.e. I believe in God the Father Almighty...

Don't forget to come to St Peter's 1st ever Fall Festival on Sunday, October 9th Immediately following 11:30 Mass. Pumpkin Carvings, Pumpkin Chucking, Food & Fun!
