Attention Liturgical Ministers & Music Ministry: Would you like to learn more about the New Translation of the Roman Missal? There is a workshop being held at St. Peter’s on Sat., Sept. 17th at 9:00am. The Archdiocesan Office of Worship will be presenting the workshop, which runs until 3:00pm. You may attend all or part of the workshop day.

From 9:00-12:00, Catherine Combier-Donovan will speak on the new translation, followed by lunch by the Ladies Club for $6.00, and 1:00-3:00 musicians are invited to participate in a sing-through of the new & revised mass settings. Please see the flyer in today's bulletin for more details.

Attention Singers & Musicians: Please prayerfully consider lending your talents to the Adult Choir. We start up again on Sun., Sept. 18th at the 9:00 mass and sing/play every other weekend. We rehearse the Thurs. before our scheduled mass at 7:15pm in the church. Now that we meet only every other week, won’t you consider joining us? We especially need men. Please contact Sherri Slattery at sslattery@stpeter-libertytown.org or by phone: 301-898-5111, ext. 11 if you have any questions, come to our first practice of the year – Thurs., Sept. 15th at 7:15 in the church. The ability to read music is a plus, but not necessary. More important is a willingness to praise God. through song. “Sing to the Lord with harp and song, with trumpet and with horn.” Psalm 98
THE NEW TRANSLATION OF THE ROMAN MISSAL

Confiteor—"I confess to almighty God…"

Current: ‘I confess through my own fault”
New: “Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault.”

We will now repeat it three times while striking our breasts in a sign of repentance, This thrice repetition gives a fuller expression of sorrow for our sins. It is a strong reminder that all sin offends God and that we must take responsibility for sinning in our thoughts, words, deeds, and for the good things we have failed to do. The purpose of this prayer is to help us cultivate an attitude of remorse for our sins and humble acknowledgement that we are in need of God’s mercy.

Dehydration –
“...I will pour out my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your children. They will thrive like watered grass, like willows on a riverbank.” Isaiah 44:3b,4 NLT

Dehydration can occur quickly without warning and children are at greater risk than adults because of their fluid volume and small body weights. If a child has severe diarrhea, vomits for more than 8 hours, can’t keep fluids down, has moderate diarrhea for more than 3 days, or is irritable, disoriented, and much sleepier than usual, beware of dehydration. Give small amounts of fluids frequently and increase as tolerated. For infants and young children, Mayo Clinic recommends an over the counter supplement called Pedialyte. This provides a balanced solution unlike the sugared, clear liquids (ginger ale) that are frequently offered. If breast-feeding, don’t stop but check with your doctor about additional or replacement fluids. Marybeth Terrell, mbt9507@verizon.net
