INCANTO

(in'kanto): enchantment

Italian for enchantment, Incanto designs were inspired by Italian art, the landscape, as well as Venetian history. The soft ripples of the Adriatic Sea are mimicked in the ruffle design, the stripe is reminiscent of the strong stately columns of Palladian villas along the Brenta River, the lace was inspired by the famed lace of Venice's Burano Island, and the baroque style recreates the architectural curves of 17th century Europe.

('lastra): slab

The clean and simple lines of Lastra were inspired by the circular wooden slab used for centuries to create the outer mold in cheesemaking throughout Italy. When fashioned together with twine, the hoop was left with a slight overlap to help maintain the shape of the cheese mold. Maestro molder Stefano Roselli incorporates the overlapping detail into the entire design, from its foot to its rim. A dark dusting on the edges of each piece suggests the ash that was used to preserve these cheeses and highlights each unique silhouette.

OLD ST. NICK

VIETRI's signature holiday collection is a celebration of nostalgia, family, and holiday spirit. When maestro artisan Alessandro Taddei was a small boy, his mother read him stories about Babbo Natale, Italy's Santa Claus. Alessandro transforms those memories into whimsical and joyful designs that portray Old St. Nick's happy adventures during the holiday season.

STORIA

(store-ria): Story

Storia is a collection with a story. Maestro artisan Gianluca Fabbro was inspired by the Japanese tradition of kintsugi: repairing broken pottery with a special golden lacquer. These mended pieces are not considered inferior; rather they are celebrated for the beauty that is found in imperfection, resourcefulness, and rebuilding. Gianluca reimagined this concept by selecting beloved designs from his own workshop's archive and handspinging them onto new pieces with a look that suggests they are held together by gold paint. This collection is a meaningful fusion of heritage, history, harmony, and high design.

(tar ta rù ga): turtle

The Tartaruga collection is a beautifully serene and artistic depiction of sea turtles. Maestro artisan Gianluca Fabbro uses his unique sponging technique to capture the detail of the swimming turtles, and the gray, green, and blue color palette is a calming and sophisticated take on coastal dining.
