Martin Fish Company ... Since 1958

The Martin family started fishing in Sweden. Around 1900, John Patrick Martin immigrated to the Nags Head NC area and fished with gill nets for Sturgeon. His son, John Woodrow Martin (Pop) fished in Chincoteague VA, before moving up to OC after 1933 when the strong Nor'Easter carved out the inlet. Pop and his cousin, Harold Martin, started Martin Fish Company and later set up a retail store that has been in operation in Ocean City ever since. In 1975, Pop's oldest of 7 children, John David Martin, took over the family business, with most of the other siblings or spouses owning and operating fishing boats themselves. Today, John David's children, John R, Sam, and Erika, are all in the fishing industry. John R, Erika, and Sam's children, Charles and Ginger, can be seen working hard at MFC on the dock, in the office and at the retail stores. Fishing and providing fresh seafood to their customers is their way of life, and they love it.
