Sparkling & White Wines:

#1 - Jacques Pelvas Brut Rosé, NV, Provence, France

Vibrant pink in color, it's fresh and apple-y on the nose and medium-bodied on the palate, with hints of red berries and quince coming in on the crisp, refreshing finish. Made from Grenache, this is a lovely fruit-driven sparkler that will pair beautifully with holiday meals or as a perfect bubbly for parties. $14

#2 - Hay Maker Sauvignon Blanc, 2020, Marlborough, New Zealand

This classically styled New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc opens with gooseberry, green apple and fresh herb notes with a touch of mineral. Medium-bodied with a good amount of freshness and varietal character, it finishes medium-long and with good balance. It will pair perfectly with salads and light white fish dishes. $14

#3 - Fetzer Gewurztraminer, 2020, Monterey, California

The Fetzer family were one of the first wineries in California to champion sustainability and are now a certified B corporation. Their Monterey Gewurztraminer is an absolute delight to drink and is a slam dunk for Turkey Day. It balances subtle sweetness with crisp acidity and vibrant varietal character. An exotic swirl of rose petal, honeysuckle, peach and mango entices the nose, leading to a richly nuanced palate of apricot, peach, and a hint of almond. Best Value from Wine Spectator & 90 points from James Suckling. $9

#4 - Delas Viognier, 2019, Languedoc, France

This amazing Rhone producer crafts this Viognier from vineyards just south of the Rhone in the Languedoc. Fresh and perfumed, with notions of white peach, tangerine, brioche, honeysuckle and white flowers, it flows onto the palate with a soft, seamless texture that carries no hard edges, integrated acidity and a delicious, easy to understand style. $13

#5 - Cartlidge & Brown Chardonnay, 2019, California

This lovely Chardonnay has notes of orange blossom, baked apple, tropical fruit, & hazelnut. Medium-bodied, with nice intensity, as well as a creamy, honeyed texture, lovely purity, and a heady, lush finish, this is a hedonistic, delicious Chardonnay to drink over the next 8-12 months with mushroom and chicken pasta dishes and pork chops. $13

Red Wines:

#6 - Robert Debuissou Beaujolais-Villages, 2017, Burgundy, France

This Beaujolais has aromas of roses, violets, and sweet raspberries. This lovely wine has excellent depth, structure, and balance. Copious floral and dark fruit flavors are found in its sultry character. Put a slight chill on it and serve it with appetizers or on your Turkey day table. $13

#7 - Pavette Pinot Noir, 2020, Central Coast, California

Pure Pinot Noir bursting with ripe red fruits and a subtle savory spice/tea accent. Cherry, raspberry and cranberry flavors on the palate are rich and make this oh so fun to drink. Pairs beautifully with mushroom dishes, salmon and, of course, turkey. $14

#8 - Manon Tempranillo, 2018, La Mancha, Spain

Made from 80-year-old vines, it was aged for 3 months in French and American oak for added complexity. Aromas of cinnamon, clove, violets, and blackberry lead to a ripe, forward, spicy wine ideal for pairing with pizza and burgers. Drink this very good value over the next 2-3 years. $11

#9 - Cline Old Vine Zinfandel, 2019, Lodi, California

Sourcing from Zinfandel vineyards that are primarily over 50 years old, the wine has a saturated dark ruby/purple color, a lovely nose of straightforward, ripe, jammy, black-raspberry fruit, medium to full body, excellent purity, and a soft, heady, well-focused finish. Drink it over the next 3-4 years with burgers and barbecue. $13

#10 - Andeluna "Raices" Malbec, 2020, Mendoza, Argentina

This fantastic Malbec exhibits a nose of cedar, spice box, black cherry, and plum. Forward, plush, and mouth-coating, this is a tasty wine that over-delivers big-time. Drink it over the next 5 years with leaner cuts of beef, pork and dark meat turkey. $11

#11 - Château Haut-Bicou, 2020, Bordeaux, France

Organically farmed!!

Having beef or lamb on your Thanksgiving table? Bordeaux is the wine for you! A blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc, Haut-Bicou is a family owned, organically farmed estate located in the northern part of Bordeaux. Ruby color with a nose of blackberry, strawberry, toasted oak, and a touch of dusty cocoa and spice, the finish has ripe tannin and nice freshness. $15

#12 - Los Haroldos Cabernet Sauvignon, 2018, Mendoza, Argentina

This 100% Cabernet is quite classical in its approach. Aromas of blackberries, graphite, black pepper and cedar soar from the glass. Rich and opulent, the palate is medium to full-bodied and is well integrated with ripe tannins, toasty oak and spice. $12
