

Colonel Joe Mroszczyk (mur-oz-ick)

COL Joe Mroszczyk is the Director for the Transformation Integration Directorate for Space Superiority (TID-SS) and a recent graduate from Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies with the United States Space Force West Space Scholars Program. Prior to the USSF senior service college, Joe commanded the 1st Multi-Domain Effects Battalion in the 1st Multi-Domain Task Force at Joint Base Lewis-McCord. He was commissioned from the United States Military Academy in 2004. Joe was assigned to 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment, Ft. Carson, Colorado as an artilleryman and deployed twice with the Regiment to Iraq between 2005-2009.

Joe attended the Field Artillery Captain's Career Course at Fort Sill, Oklahoma and from 2009 to 2011, was assigned to 2-2 Infantry Battalion, 3rd Brigade Combat Team, 1st Infantry Division as the Effects Coordinator. In 2011, he deployed to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and took command of Alpha Battery, 1-6 Field Artillery Battalion, while deployed. Following battery command in 2012, Joe transitioned to Functional Area 40-Space Operations Officer.

His space assignments have included Deputy Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) Capabilities Manager (TCM) for Space; Executive Officer to the Deputy Commanding General for Operations SMDC/ARSTRAT; Detachment Command in 4th Space Company, 1st Space Battalion, 1st Space Brigade; Aide-de-Camp for the Commanding General, USASMDC/ARSTRAT and Joint Functional Component Command for Integrated Missile Defense (JFCC-IMD); Space Control Command and Control Branch Chief Headquarters of the Air Force /Secretary of the Air Force. In 2019, LTC Mroszczyk was selected to join the Asymmetric Warfare Group as the Space and Special Technical Operations (STO) Chief, leading work on information advantage for the Army.

Joe attended training with industry at Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory for a year before transitioning to I Corps in August 2022 as the deputy space and STO Chief at Joint Base Lewis McChord, WA before taking command of the 1st Multi-Domain Effects Battalion.

Joe volunteers as the National President of the Army Space Professionals Association, was an assistant Scoutmaster with the Scouts, BSA, an assistant coach for High School Track Pole Vault, is currently a soccer coach for U16 kids, and assistant wrestling coach for K through 8th grade. His Military Education includes Space Force War College, Command and General Staff College, EMI Fundamentals, Air Force Space Control Tactics, Air Force Space 200 & 300, Joint Operational Fires and Effects Course, Collateral Damage Estimation, Field Artillery Captain's Career Course, Field Artillery Officer Basic Course, Bradley Fire Support Vehicle Course, and Airborne School. Joe earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science Engineering from the US Military Academy, a Master of Science in Space Studies from American Military University, and a Master of International Public Policy from Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies.

COL Mroszczyk's awards and decorations include two Bronze Star Medals, one Defense Meritorious Service Medal, five Meritorious Service Medals, two Army Commendation Medals, Valorous Unit Award, two Meritorious Unit Citations, Afghanistan Campaign Medal (2), Iraq Campaign Medal (3), NATO Service Medal, Global War on Terrorism Medal, Combat Action Badge, Master Space Badge, and the Parachutist Badge.