

SHANNON C. GEORGE

I was born and raised in Columbus, GA, back door to Ft. Moore “Home of the Infantry”. I have been married to my husband John for 34 + years and we have 3 sons, 3 daughters in love and 5 grands and one on the way.

I graduated from UGA with a BS in Educational Psychology in 1989 and became a military spouse a few months later. I felt it was my mission to stay home with our boys and be involved in their schools and sports teams, therefore my work and volunteer experience is very broad and varied. I always managed to feel comfortable filling in where needed and taking jobs that worked with my crazy schedule. A few places I worked for were Military Child Education Coalition (MCEC), ING Financial Partners, Burke Sporting Goods, an Orthopedic Surgeon, a Wedding Boutique and various church youth groups.

Volunteering always brings joy to my heart. I enjoy serving at our church, as an Arlington Lady and on the GO Spouse Mentorship Board.

I love serving our country and being a part of its military communities. Working alongside Soldiers and their families is a privilege and I consider it an honor to be called a military spouse.
