

Leah S. Collins

LTG Rob Collins and Leah have been married for more than 33 years. They have three children – Madeline (28), Maria (24) and Matthew (21). All of their children played soccer and were active swimmers. Madeline graduated from Coastal Carolina college in 2018 with a Bachelor of Science in Economics and got married in 2023. Maria graduated from Clemson University in 2022, has a career in Nursing and was married in May 2025 to a United States Naval Officer. Matt is a Senior at the United States Naval Academy and will commission as a Nuclear Submarine Officer.

Leah was born in Pennsylvania and grew up in Carlisle. She graduated from Shippensburg University with a Bachelor of Science in Education and was a certified teacher for Secondary Education in the Social Sciences.

She has worked with the United Services Organization (USO) and YMCA in the Colorado Springs area in Colorado. While there, she coordinated numerous family activities, child programs, fundraisers and efforts to strengthen the local community.

Leah also volunteered with the Fisher House in Aberdeen Proving Ground (APG) community. These efforts have helped raise money for resources for a network of support homes where military and veterans' families can stay at no cost while family members are receiving treatment. She currently works at the Fort Myer Thrift Store as The Donation Coordinator, which raises resources to support military families.

Leah has also supported Family Readiness activities at numerous levels across the Army. Most recently as part of Army Acquisition organizations, she has become active in helping not only military, but also Department of the Army Civilians and their needs. She always seeks out opportunities to conduct Community Outreach and has done so with several organizations. The Collins family has moved a total of 13 times since they have been married.

Family and spending time with Madeline, Maria and Matthew is Leah's main priority. She enjoys walking, reading, cooking and playing tennis and pickleball. She is also an avid sports fan; enjoying swimming, football, soccer, and tennis.
