

Colonel Rhea Pritchett

Director for the Targeted Capabilities Office
Mission Integration Directorate
National Reconnaissance Office

Colonel Rhea Pritchett recently became the Director for the Targeted Capabilities Office, Mission Integration Directorate, National Reconnaissance Office, Chantilly, Va.

Colonel Pritchett received her commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Signal Corps in 1999. As a Signal Officer, she served in various company and battalion level assignments at Fort Hood, Texas to include Detachment Commander.

COL Pritchett was selected for the Acquisition Workforce in 2006. As a member of the Acquisition Corps, her Acquisition assignments include numerous program management positions throughout the Defense Acquisition Life Cycle.

She spent a year serving as a Training with Industry Fellow at Lockheed Martin Rotary and Mission Systems in Orlando, Florida.

She's commanded at the O-5 and O-6 levels serving as the Product Manager for Live Training Systems within the Program Executive Office for Simulations, Training, and Instrumentation in Orlando, Florida and as the Program Executive Officer for SOF Digital Applications.

COL Pritchett has a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Hofstra University, a Master of Arts in Procurement and Acquisitions Management from Webster University, and a Master of Science in National Resource Strategy from the National Defense University.

COL Pritchett is married to Elvis Pritchett, and they have three sons.