

Executive Director

Dallas Atkinson

Dallas Atkinson joins the HillVets Foundation as the Executive Director, bringing a wealth of experience in nonprofit management and a deep commitment to the military community. Her ability to create authentic and enduring relationships has been a cornerstone of her professional success.

Dallas is passionate about advocating for veterans and military spouses. As the spouse and lifelong champion of Col Pete Atkinson, a Green Beret posted at the Pentagon, she brings a personal and profound understanding of the military lifestyle to her professional endeavors.

Dallas' innovative approach and dedication to storytelling, combined with her professional achievements and personal experiences, make her uniquely equipped to lead and expand HillVets Foundation's programs, fostering growth and support for veterans and their families.

dallas@hillvets.org